Whilst every care is taken to ensure the safety and well being of every animal on the premises, we cannot be held responsible for any illness or injury or any person or animal on the premises, however caused. Foaling is a high risk for any mare, whilst every care will be taken with your mare and foal all mares are brought for foaling entirely at the owners risk.

Should a vet be needed we will consult our own professional on your behalf and you will settle the account directly.

It is highly recommended that horses are insured as all horses are left entirely at owners risk.
